Weekly Newsletter

23rd May 2018

Dear Parents,

Just a wee reminder that the school will be closed on Monday 28th May for the bank holiday. Thank you to all the parents who came out to our second parents' meeting regarding our Fun Day and Barbecue evening on the 22nd June. We had a very positive meeting and have started to make plans about the event. We will be holding another meeting on Tuesday 29th May at 7 pm to confirm our arrangements. If you able to come on Tuesday night please do so as we are wanting this to be a great night for both the children and yourselves.

Many thanks for your continued support.

Yours sincerely

D. Amor

Book Donations

We are looking to increase the number of class sets of novels. If you have any Roald Dahl, Michael Morpurgo or David Walliams books that have already been read and you are looking to give the books to a good home we would be very grateful for all donations received.

Please send the books in to Mrs McCormick. Many thanks.

Parent Consultations

We are going to put up a consultation for parents on the website to complete regarding our Extended Schools provision. We have been very lucky to receive funding over the years for extended schools and although there has been a reduction in what we received this year we still qualify for some funding. Many other schools have lost their funding so please when the consultation goes up on the website take time to answer the questions as it will inform our actions for the 2018/19 year.

Shared Education Project

The P6s and P7s are going out on Friday with St Columba's PS to visit St Brigid's and St Patrick's H.S in Claudy to carry out a Numeracy and problem solving day. We look forward to hearing how they got on.

The P3,4,5 s all went to W5 in Belfast yesterday and had a great time. I heard such great tales of all their activities this morning. There were even reports from staff and the general public about how mannerly and well behaved the children of Newbuildings PS were. Well done to all of you both, children and staff!!
